10th INTERNATIONAL WINE SHOW PRAGUE – I.W.S.P. 16. 4. 2013

Prague, April 18, 2013 – On Tuesday April 16, 2013 the 10th INTERNATIONAL WINE SHOW PRAGUE – I.W.S.P. was held in a luxury ambience of the Hilton Hotel Prague. Around 35 winemakers from Austria, Germany, Slovenia, France, Spain, Italy, Romania, the Czech Republic and Slovakia presented their wines at this extraordinary event. The winemakers had an opportunity to find their distributors in the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Straight on site they gained many new contacts and started new business partnership.

The 10th anniversary was marked by the cooperation with the Embassy of the Republic of Slovenia in Prague. With their contribution the visitors had the opportunity to taste wines from four prestigious Slovenian winemakers and discover Slovenia as a country with wine tradition. According to positive comments of winemakers and audience this was a step in the right direction. Great attention was caught by the young and dynamically developing Liliac winery from Romania which introduced a complete portfolio of wines. Through their participation in the wine show they have successfully entered the Czech market.

The main goal was to built on previous successful years and to maintain the high level of the whole event, which was managed. Participation of professionals from wine and beverage industry and journalists guaranteed the professionalism of the fair. The media coverage was ensured by the domestic magazine Wine & Degustation and Austrian magazine Wein pur.at.
