I.W.S.P. - 11th INTERNATIONAL WINE SHOW PRAGUE – 22/10/2013

Praha, 29.10. 2013 – On Tuesday October 22, 2013 the 11th International Wine Show Prague I.W.S.P. was successfully held in the premises of Hilton Hotel Prague. The wine show belongs to the most important wine events in the Czech republic with the highest number of foreign exhibitors. More than 400 visitors had an opportunity to meet 61 wine makers and wine distributors from all of the world (Austria, France, Italy, Germany, South Africa, Slovenia, Spain, Moravia, Kosovo, Romania, Slovakia, Canada, etc.) who look for business partners in the Czech republic and Slovakia.

The number of exhibitors doubled compared to previous fair that was held in April 2013. The wine show gave to winemakers a chance to present their wine, gain new business contacts and meet relevant partners from wine business and gastronomy.

The highlight of this event was the presence of the Italian consortium I Vini del Piemonte that brought 21 winemakers from Piedmont region. President of Consortium Mr. Andrea Faccio expressed satisfaction with organisation and composition of visitors.

The wine show also continued a successful cooperation with the Embassy of Slovenia in Prague. Visitors had an opportunity to taste high quality wines from 4 Slovenian winemakers who were personally supported by the Ambassador of Slovenia, Her Excellency Ms. Smiljana Knez.

There was introduced a new section called IWSP Master of Wine which was held in a separate salon. In this section 31 wines which were tasted and evaluated by Mr. Andreas Wickhoff, international wine expert and holder of Master of Wine title were presented for selected wine operators

Official partners of this event were Italian consortium I Vini del Piemonte, Austrian web portal Austrian Wine, Embassy of Slovenia in Prague, Association of Sommeliers in the Czech Republic, La Cucina Italiana magazine, Intercool, company offering wine coolers and Oreon Trading & Marketing s.r.o. company offering wine accessory.
